

To the fine people at the FCC,

Please do not allow Sinclair's stations to broadcast the "Stolen Honor" "film". It is a disgusting misuse of the public's airwaves, and is a start on a slippery slope towards powerful media companies cracking the foundations of real journalism and the democratic process. A response would be appreciated.

Regards,
Brett Roberts